

Book Distribution:

As the story is originally based on Jagdishpur Reservoir area of Kapilvastu district, books were physically handed over to related stakeholders and government officials of the Kapilvastu area on 20th February 2023.

Following are the list of officials and representatives from the Kapilvastu region.

1. Mr. Deepak Bahadur Gurung, Chairperson ward-09, Kapilvastu Municipality
2. Mr. Pahalman Sermuja Magar, Assistant Forest Officer, Division Forest, Kapilvastu
3. Mr. Padam Raj Shrestha, Social Development Officer, Kapilvastu Municipality
4. Mr. Anil Chaudhary, President, Jagdishpur Reservoir Tharu Homestay
5. Women group of Jagdishpur Reservoir Tharu Homestay
6. 10 schools:

Shree Madhyamik Vidhyalaya	Shree Kanakmuni Secondary School
Shree Janta Adhaarbhut Vidhyalaya	Shree Tilaurakot Madhyamik Vidhyalaya
C.N. Memorial school	Shree Buddha Vidhya Peeth Prathamik Vidhyalaya
Shree Rastriya Madhyamik Vidhyalaya	Achievers English boarding School
Gurukul English Boarding School	Shree Shyam Aadharbhut Vidhyalaya

With the purpose to reach the major areas with ongoing conservation and research of fishing cats in Nepal, this book was handed over to the following researchers and stakeholders around Chitwan National Park.

1. Ms. Rama Mishra, Terai Fishing Cat Project
2. Mr. Bal Krishna Khanal, Officer, District forest office, Aaptari, Chitwan
3. Malpur Secondary School, Sauraha, Chitwan

Additionally, this book will also be distributed to the stakeholders working for the fishing cat conservation.

